Yep it's that time of year again when another 11 v 11 men run around chasing a ball for fortune and glory...

If you are interested in showing your prowess at this sport, as opposed to the one that really counts, and if you fancy your chances of beating last years' runaway champion, Darren Hall, go to: www.fantasy.premierleague.com, pick your team, then click join private league (our league name is: the team from the Scheme, league pin number is 1593375-363577).

Should be a cracker of a season, at the top and the bottom. Whether you fancy yourself as a Van Gaal or a special one, or have learned from the master Wenger, or Rodgers, or Messers Hughes, Redknapp, Pulis or Allardyce, everyone has a chance to prove themselves!

Don't delay you have until 11.30am on Saturday morning to put your team in for the chance to be the LCC fantasy football manager of 2014/15.

Good luck everyone!
